SENATE BILL ON FIRST READING.

The following Senate bill, received from the Senate today, was laid before the House, read first time, and referred to the appropriate committee, as follows:

Senate bill No. 455, to the Committee on Conservation and Reclamation.

RECESS.

Mr. Hall moved that the House recess to 9 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

Mr. Pearce moved that the House adjourn to 9 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

Mr. Purl moved that the House recess until 10 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

Mr. Stell moved that the House recess to 8 o'clock p. m. today.

The motion of Mr. Hall prevailed, and the House, accordingly, at 6:05 o'clock p. m., took recess to 9 o'clock a. m. tomorrow.

FORTY-SECOND DAY.

(Friday, March 13, 1925.)

The House met at 9 o'clock a. m. and was called to order by Speaker Satterwhite.

DESIGNATING LAMAR DAY.

Mr. Kittrell offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in convention assembled in Amarillo, Texas, in the month of November, 1924, adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, We recognize the great importance of the action of the early Texas fathers in setting aside public lands for the purpose of financing the founding and maintaining the public school system of Texas; and

"Whereas, President Mirabeau B. Lamar first inspired and urged upon Congress the importance of education as an adjunct to free government, and wisely pointed to the public domain as the best means to insure it, and so eloquently pleaded its cause that on January 26, 1839, Congress unanimously passed the law setting aside public lands for a public school system in Texas; and

"Whereas, Furthermore, it was Lamar who declared that 'Cultivated mind is the guardian genius of democracy * * * the only dictator freemen acknowledge, the only security freemen desire,' and labored that the great nation Texas was destined to become should be composed of self-reliant, independent and enlightened citizens, and become a nation of home owners; and

"Whereas, We recognize further the importance of having this action of Congress, the day of its successful passage, and the name of its chief advocate kept alive in the minds and hearts of succeeding generations of Texans; therefore, be it

"Resolved, The Federation of Women's Clubs, meeting in annual session at Amarillo, in November, 1924, does hereby go on record as favoring such legislation by the State as will result in the early setting aside of January 26 as 'Lamar Day' to be annually observed in schools and communities in the interest of education, and that school authorities generally be recommended to arrange special programs for presentation on that day." And

Whereas, The House of Representatives of Texas is in entire sympathy with the spirit and purpose of the resolution above set forth; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House, the Senate concurring, That it is the sense of the Legislature of Texas that the 26th day of January of each year, unless said day should fall on Sunday and if so the Friday preceding should be designated and observed as "Lamar Day" in all the public schools of Texas, and that it is recommended that on said day the teachers in the public schools explain to the pupils the meaning and historical significance of the day, to the end that there may be installed in the minds of the children of Texas reverence for the cultured and scholarly patriot and statesman to whom they are so largely debtors for the opportunity which they enjoy of obtaining a free education.

Signed—Kittrell, Webb, Poage, Young, Dielmann, Harman, Hall, Gray, Irwin.

The resolution was read second time and was adopted.

Within thirty days after the passage of this act the Governor shall by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, appoint one chief justice and two associate justices for the Eleventh Supreme Judicial District who shall each reside in the territorial limits of the Eleventh Supreme Judicial District and who shall possess the qualifications now required by law, who shall constitute the Court of Civil Appeals within and for the Eleventh Supreme Judicial District and who shall hold their offices until the next general election in 1926, and who shall thereafter be elected and qualify as provided and required by Article 1581 of the 1911 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas.

Sec. 3. The Court of Civil Appeals for the Eleventh Supreme Judicial District shall hold its sessions in the city of Abilene, in the county of Taylor, and

Sec. 4. Provided any chief justice or associate justice of any existing Court of Civil Appeals whose residence is now in any county which by this act is taken out of said district, shall continue to hold office until the expiration of his present term, provided that he shall move into the district of which he is judge as constituted by this act within four months after this act takes effect.

Sec. 5. The fact that there exists a great and constantly increasing accumulation of cases in the ten Courts of Civil Appeals now existing, whereby it is rendered practically impossible for said courts to dispose of the business on their dockets with reasonable dispatch, constitutes an emergency rendering it proper and necessary that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and the same is hereby suspended and that this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and that all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be and are hereby repealed, and it is so enacted.

(Mr. Purl in the chair.)

Mr. High offered the following amendment to the amendment:

Amend the amendment to Senate bill No. 189 by taking Fayette county out of the First Supreme Judicial District and placing same in Third Supreme Judicial District and taking Van Zandt and Wood counties out of the Fifth Supreme Judicial District and placing them in the Sixth Supreme Judicial District.

(Speaker in the chair.)

Sec. 5. The fact that there exists a great and constantly increasing accumulation of cases in the ten Courts of Civil Appeals now existing, whereby it is rendered practically impossible for said courts to dispose of the business on their dockets with reasonable dispatch, constitutes an emergency rendering it proper and necessary that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage and that all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be and are hereby repealed, and it is so enacted.

SPECIAL ORDER SET.

The House, by unanimous consent, agreed to set all House joint resolutions on the Speaker's table as a special order for 10 o'clock a. m., Saturday, March 14.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

On motion of Mr. Jacks, the following statement was ordered printed in the Journal:

After reading the report in the Dallas News of the argument that was given in the House of Representatives on the Amnesty Bill, I desire to make a corrective statement of such report. Not that I censure the News because I consider the report very fair and the News quoted me correctly in what they quoted me, but they failed to quote enough of my speech and, thereby, left a misinterpretation of my speech to their readers as is very evident in a letter from J. M. Richards, of Weatherford, addressed to the News and printed in the Friday, March 13, issue.

The News quoted me as saying, "That every man who fought under the Confederate flag had been guilty of treason to the United States, but, had been pardoned by congressional action." What I really said was, quoting the actual words of my speech, "That the Federal authority, then in power, had claimed that every man who fought under the Confederate flag and who was called a Rebel, was guilty of treason," and, in making this statement, I was reading from the true history of America, an authentic history which composes a part of the State Library. I then said that Congress had pardoned every man under the Confederate flag by a sweeping amnesty bill such as the bill that the House of Representatives had under consideration. Mr. Richards says, in his letter, the very same things that I said. He says that President Jefferson Davis was charged with treason, and the exact words of my talk were that the Confederate soldiers had been charged with treason and, I did not, no more than Mr. Richards, say that the Confederate soldiers were guilty of treason, but simply said that they were charged with treason and were pardoned by a sweeping amnesty act passed by Congress.

Every member of the House of Representatives of both the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth Legislature know that the ex-Confederate soldiers of the State of Texas have not had a better friend in the Legislature, when it came to the question of increasing their pensions or providing larger appropriations for their welfare, than I, and the very first speech that I ever made on the floor of the House of Representatives was in favor of the ex-Confederate soldiers.

I make this statement for the purpose of correcting wrong impressions that might be gained by reason of the report of the Dallas News by men and women who may not know me, such as Mr. Richards, and to place myself squarely on record in regard to my position toward ex-Confederate soldiers. It would, indeed, be inconsistent of me in view of my ancestry to take the position imposed upon me by the letter of Mr. Richards and the report of the Dallas News.

The point in argument before the House was whether or not there was a precedent for pardon by legislative action of one charged with treason or impeachment and, in making my speech, I simply took the History of the United States and read it, which history said that the Confederate soldiers charged with treason had been pardoned by a sweeping amnesty act. This was the very same thing as stated by Mr. Richards in his letter. It is not through fear of the threat made by Mr. Richards that I make this statement, but through the desire that my record be kept straight in regard to my friendship and devotion to the boys in gray who fought under the Confederate flag for whom I hold the greatest love, respect and admiration that can be held by mortal man.

NATHANIEL JACKS.

Mr. Raymer moved that the House request the Dallas News to make a correction requested by Mr. Jacks on a question of personal privilege.

The motion prevailed.

BILL ORDERED NOT PRINTED.

Amend Senate bill No. 35 by adding between the "semicolon" and the word "provided," line 11, page 2, the following: "and also in all counties having an assessed valuation of all taxable properties of not less than $20,600,000 and not more than $20,660,000, and in all counties having an assessed valuation of all taxable properties of not less than $13,048,600 and not more than $13,050,000, based upon the approved tax rolls for the year 1924, as shown by the Comptroller's report for 1924, the county commissioners shall devote such of their time to the duties of their office as may be required by law and to such other duties relating to or concerning the business of the county, or any road district of such county, as the commissioners court may require, including the entire time of such commissioners, and for such services each such commissioner may receive a salary of not exceeding $1800 per annum, payable in equal monthly installments, which salary shall be in lieu of all other fees, ex-officio compensation, or per diem, of all kinds now allowed by law."

Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature and as amended by Chapter 98 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, as amended by Chapter 184 of the General Laws of the Thirty-eighth Legislature, be, and the same are hereby amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"In counties having the following assessed valuations, respectively, the county commissioners of such counties may each receive the annual salaries herein specified, to be paid in equal monthly installments out of the general funds of the county:

Assessed valuation:	Salary.
"$10,000,000 and less than $12,000,000	$1500

"$25,000,000 and less than $30,000,000	2250
"$30,000,000 and less than $100,000,000	2400
"$100,000,000 and over.....	3600

"In counties having an assessed valuation of less than $10,000,000 each county commissioner shall receive five dollars per day for each day served as commissioner and when acting as ex-officio road superintendent in his precinct, not to exceed one thousand dollars in any year. In counties whose assessed valuation is $100,000,000 or more, said commissioners shall devote their entire time to the duties required of them by law and such other duties as their commissioners court may require of them. 'Assessed valuation' means the total assessed valuation of all properties as shown by the tax rolls certified by the county assessor, approved by the commissioners court and approved by the Comptroller, for the year 1924.

"Sec. 2. The fact that the county commissioners in a great many counties in this State are at present inadequately paid, thus hampering their efficiency as servants of their respective precincts, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity demanding that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house of the Legislature be suspended, and said rule is hereby suspended, and this act shall take effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

Signed—Faulk, Wade, Woodruff, Cummings and Pope.
